5. ADMINISTRATIVE AND PLANNING EXPENDITURES

NAHASDA regulations place a cap on how much a Recipient, along with all of its Subrecipients, can, without getting special approval from HUD, expend on administrative and planning expenses when using IHBG funds. Therefore, the Subrecipient, under this Subrecipient Agreement, is (check one of the following): prohibited from spending any of these subgranted funds on administrative and planning expenses or, limited to expending no more than _____% (percent) equivalent to $ _____ of these subgranted funds on administrative and planning expenses.

- prohibited from spending any of these subgranted funds on administrative and planning expenses or,
- limited to expending no more than _____% (percent) equivalent to $ _____ of these subgranted funds on administrative and planning expenses.

If, in the election above, this Agreement authorizes the Subrecipient to expend a portion of subgranted funds on administrative and planning expenses, the Subrecipient is minimally required to report to the Recipient, in writing, on a(n) [insert time period] _____ basis the amount spent on such expenses, total expenses, and the percentage of administrative and planning expenses to total expenses.

6. RECIPIENT REQUIREMENTS

A. Statement of Work

- 1. The Sub-recipient shall be responsible, on behalf and in the best interests of BSRHA, for the successful completion of the program requirements found in the approved IHBG.

2. The Sub-recipient shall supervise and monitor the day-to-day performance of its staff/any contractors and shall report to the BSRHA regarding their monitoring findings on a regular basis. It will also submit regular progress reports, revised documentation, or schedules, and immediately alert BSRHA in writing as to any problems encountered which could delay or alter the agreed upon terms of the Agreement.
3. The Sub-recipient shall advocate, solicit, coordinate, procure, manage, develop, and maintain the program as stated in this Agreement on behalf of BSRHA. This includes and settling disputes, and securing, obtaining, managing, transferring, and holding funds from any source.
4. The Sub-recipient shall adhere to all applicable laws, regulations, and guidance in the administration of this Agreement. The Sub-recipient agrees that it is responsible for any damages incurred by BSRHA because of Sub-recipient's failure in the regard.

B. Schedule of Work

1. The Sub-recipient shall adhere to the following Schedule of Work (SOW) specifying work to be done, dates of completion and sources of funds. The Schedule of Work is attached as addendum 1 to this document and is made part of the Agreement by reference. By execution of this Agreement, BSRHA approves the above SOW.
2. Proposed changes or amendments to the Schedule must be submitted in writing to BSRHA for review and concurrence. All such documents become a part of this Agreement and are thus subject to the same standards and requirements stipulated herein.
3. BSRHA may require on-site visits during any activities funded by this grant to be conducted by BSRHA staff. Any such on-site become part of the project documentation.

7. FEDERAL SUBRECIPIENT REQUIREMENTS

The Subrecipient hereby agrees to comply with all requirements under NAHASDA (25 USC 4101, et.seq.) and its implementing regulations (24 CFR Part 1000) and other applicable federal laws and regulations.

NAHASDA and 24 CFR Part 1000 require that IHBG funds can only be used for affordable housing activities that assist low-income members of federally recognized tribes, members of certain state-recognized tribes, and members of groups or communities of Indians and Alaska Natives that are eligible for programs and services pursuant to the Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act. The Subrecipient, in carrying out this Agreement and related activities, shall conform to these federal requirements.
